Dear

CARRON COMPANY LIMITED (NOW DISSOLVED)
SUBJECTS: ROADWAY KNOWN AS ELLIOT TERRACE, FALKIRK

Thank you for your request dated 17 March under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 (FOISA). In your request you ask:

1 Has this roadway been sold off by you the QLTR?

2 If this is the case to whom was the roadway sold to?

3 Does the QLTR also own the footpath on the north side of the roadway known as Elliot Terrace.

In response to questions 1 and 2, I can advise the QLTR has not sold off the roadway. As you have been previously advised, the QLTR has granted a pedestrian and vehicular servitude right of access affecting part of the roadway – I enclose a copy of that deed.

As regards question 3, you will see that the servitude does affect part of the pavement on the north side of Elliot Terrace so that is considered to belong to the Crown

If you are dissatisfied with the way in which your request has been handled, you do have the right to ask us to review it. Your request should be made within 40 working days of receipt of this letter and we will reply within 20 working days of receipt. If you require a review of our decision to be carried out, please write to The QLTR, Scottish Government Building, Victoria Quay, 1B-Bridge, Edinburgh, EH6 6QQ, or for requests sent by e-mail to coqltr@copfs.gsi.gov.uk.

The review will be undertaken by staff not involved in the original decision making process.

The Scottish Government

If our decision is unchanged following a review and you remain dissatisfied with this, there is a right of appeal to the Scottish Information Commissioner under section 47(1) of FOISA.

Should you subsequently wish to appeal against the Commissioner's decision on such an appeal, there is a right of appeal to the Court of Session on a point of law only.
