Dear [REDACTED]

I refer to your e-mail of 14 September 2023 in which you requested the following information:-

to request information held on a discovery handed to Treasure Trove Unit (in summer 2021), referred to as the Dunscore hoard, that is to request photographs and any other details held (eg. catalogued information) of coins contained in this hoard.

As the full extent would likely be outwith cost scope of FOI request, I would request photographs and details of six of the coins contained in this hoard. Please select these at your discretion. Or send any number, selected at your discretion, which would fall within the scope of an FOI response which you would be able to send.

The Dunscore hoard is in the process of being catalogued and we anticipate this being completed by the end of next year. We are unable to provide images of the coins as we are not at that stage in the process.

If you are dissatisfied with the KLTR response to your FOI request, you have the right to ask us to review it. Your review request should be made within 40 working days of receipt of this letter; please e-mail policy@kltr.gov.uk and we will reply within 20 working days of receipt.

The review will be undertaken by a member of the KLTR FOI unit who was not involved in the original consideration of your request.

Under section 47(1) of FOISA if the KLTR position is unchanged following a review you have the right to appeal to the Scottish Information Commissioner within six months of receiving the review.

Under section 48(c) of FOISA that right of appeal might be limited as it can be subject to what information is requested. It is for the Scottish Information Commissioner to decide if he will accept your appeal on a case by case basis.

Yours sincerely

Susan Macdonald
